

It imposed a high tariff on foreign made goods, and so enabled American manufacturers to establish industries which supplied not only all the needs of this country, but of others as well. The great issue of the campaign is whether we shall have a tariff or no revenue only, which would be a continuation of what has been done by Mr. Schurz's party. What can be done to this? I know of no person who pretends to do so unless Carl Schurz is a critical thought temporarily review of his career. He demonstrated that Mr. Schurz had never done anything to entitle him to the gratitude or even the confidence of Germany. What can be done to Mr. Schurz's party? In this case, Mr. Blaine in a manner which I think will be a continuance of his listeners. Herman Leibnitz, the Republican nominee for Congress in the Fifth District of New-Jersey, also addressed the meeting and made a strong speech.

IRISH-AMERICANS IN BROOKLYN.

AN ENTHUSIASTIC MASS MEETING—SPEECHES BY JUDGE BRENNAN, MICHAEL BOLAND AND OTHERS.

The Irish-American element of Kings County

spoke at an uncertain voice in favor of Blaine and Logan at the mass meeting in Minde Hall, Brooklyn, last night. Every part of the building was crowded. The Blaine and Logan Irish Battery of the 1st Assembly District, New-York, marched to the meeting in body and entered the hall were received with unanimous cheering. The Emmet Fife and Drum Corps and other bands furnished music. A. E. Ford, of the Irish World, presided. He said: "It is a pleasure and an honor to preside at this magnificent meeting. [Applause] We are called together upon the platform of protection to American citizens and American industries. [Loud applause] and this great gathering is evidence that we, the men of the Irish race, are not owned by any political party. [Applause.] This is the dawning of a new era, of revolution in American politics. I now introduce Judge John Brennan, of Iowa."

Judge Brennan in the course of his remarks said: "Your homes and mines are widely separated, but in sympathy and person we are united. We are in accordance with the belief that Mr. Grover Cleveland is unfit to be President, and that he will not be President. [Applause.] We are passing through a cyclone period. We had cyclones driven in Maine the other day which tore the living out of the Cleveland boom, and we will have another cyclone in November which threatens to completely blast the wings of the Buffalo statesman. The Mulligan and Fisher letters were referred to the State of Maine, and she condemns, not Blaine, but his traducers, by 20,000 majority." [Loud applause.]

Mr. Brennan said that he had travelled across the country from the Missouri River to the Atlantic; had visited Eastern Indiana, and had crossed Ohio and Pennsylvania. Wherever he went he found the intelligence and character, the brain and soul of the Irish-American people in revolt against Grover Cleveland and in favor of James G. Blaine. [Great Applause.] The speaker addressed the audience in the name of the 11th Assembly District, which he said was to be held a meeting at the Hotel Astor, New-York, on Monday evening, at which a new transparency was displayed. Mrs. Morris Cleary, dressed by S. Rosenthal, of New-York, was to be the star attraction. It was determined to have a meeting every Monday night during the campaign.

An enthusiastic meeting was held at No. 57 West Street, between the Blaine and Logan Club of the First Ward. It is the pioneer Republican club of the ward and now has eighty members on its rolls. The dress by Schuyler, of New-York, was to be the star attraction. The speakers were C. A. Goldner, Cornelius Donovan, Joseph B. Bell and Monte Montgomery.

The Brooklin Young Republican Club will hold a meeting every evening of next week. An extended discussion is expected upon the proposition to "indorse" the Republican Presidential nomination.

An interesting meeting of the Young Men's Company of the 11th Assembly District held a ratification meeting at No. 500 Third-ave., last night. Charles L. Goldley addressed the meeting on the subject of Home Protection. The speakers were C. A. Goldner, Cornelius Donovan, Joseph B. Bell and Monte Montgomery.

Not one favorite was successful. Sheephead Bay is getting wide reputation as a daughter-house for "plungers." Canoeing down heavily in the first race, all the young Corrigan's golding J. W. Rogers, was given as a "sure thing." But Mr. Caldwell, who designs he can pull off a prize, he does not cry the news from the rooftops. J. W. Rogers came in third. Rapido was the best in the race, but Mr. Caldwell seems to have a spite against the California stable and shuns Mr. Baldwin's horses whenever he can. He capriciously dropped the flag when Rapido was far behind but outran Duchess and the General.
